Z&D's Chengdong (C.D.) Xing Named to the New York City Bar's Asian Affairs Committee

(New York, NY – October 29, 2019) – Zetlin & De Chiara LLP Associate Chengdong (C.D.) Xing has been named secretary to the Asian Affairs Committee of the City Bar for a term ending July 2021.

Fluent in both Mandarin and English, Mr. Xing represents owners/developers, designers, architects, engineers, and contractors in a wide variety of legal matters including construction contractual risks and dispute resolution. He is one of the handful of China-U.S. dual-qualified lawyers practicing construction law, with a focus on complex litigation.

As a co-author, he recently published "Feasibility Study on Utilizing the Internet and Information Technology to Improve the Efficiency and Transparency of Litigation and Arbitration Proceedings" (in Chinese; the English version is pending) on PFCCL and "The MTA's New Statutory Rules of Debarment."

Mr. Xing is a graduate of New York University School of Law, LLM and East China University of Political Science and Law, LLB.
